DESCRIPTION

On Thursday October 12 at 17:45 CEST, the IADR, FDI, ADA, and IDM will host a webinar titled Accelerating the Phase Down of Dental Amalgam: Progress Continues. The webinar dives into the critical need for the implementation of a phase-down approach that is protective of human and environmental health across all geographies. Presenters will describe progress in phasing down dental amalgam, outline the importance and efficiency of amalgam separators, provide an update on research advancements into mercury-free alternatives, and discuss the potential impact of the GEF7 project.
